

Answer sheet 2

I. Write true or false.

1. India needed a constitution when it became independent. True
2. A constitution explains the laws the people need to follow. True
3. Our constitution was adopted on August 15, 1947. False
4. The preamble is a brief introduction to the constitution. True
5. The government does not need to follow the constitution. False

II. Choose the correct answer.

1. The President of India is indirectly elected by the people. This happens because India is a:
 - a. Secular country.
 - b. Sovereign country.
 - c. Republic.
2. Priya will cast her vote when she turns 18. This is because India is a:
 - a. Republic
 - b. Democratic country
 - c. Sovereign country
3. India is ruled by the people of India, not by any other country. This is because it is a:
 - a. Democratic country
 - b. Republic
 - c. Sovereign country
4. Salim and Mahesh go to Joseph's house every year, to celebrate Christmas. This happens because India is a:
Democratic country
 - a. Socialist country
 - b. Secular country

5. Although Chumki belongs to a lower caste, she has the right to attend the same school as other children from higher castes. This happens because India is a:
- Sovereign country
 - Secular country
 - Socialist country

III. Answer in short.

1. Why did India need its own constitution in 1957?
2. Why does a country need a constitution?
3. In Vinayak's house all the adults are getting ready to go and vote. Bindhya, a lady who works in Vinayak's house, asks Vinayak's mother if she too, can vote. What do you think Vinayak's mother should tell her and why?