

Answer sheet 3

I. Choose the correct answer.

1. Raju is a small child working in the fireworks factory at Sivakasi. This goes against his:
 - a. Right to Constitutional Remedy.
 - b. Right against exploitation.

2. Shankar wrote an article against a government policy in a local newspaper because this is his:
 - a. Right to Freedom.
 - b. Cultural and Educational right.

3. Ravi becomes a Buddhist even though his family is Hindu because this is his:
 - a. Cultural and Educational Right
 - b. Right to Freedom of Religion

4. Some Gujaratis in Mumbai want to set up a Gujarati medium school in the city for their children because it is their:
 - a. Right to Equality.
 - b. Cultural and educational right.

5. Meera should get a chance for higher study if she qualifies in an exam, even though she is from a lower caste because it is her:
 - a. Right against exploitation
 - b. Right to equality

II. Circle the instances where the fundamental duties of a citizen are not being followed.

√ Not stand up for the national song.	√ Leak secret Information to other countries.	 Arrange religious gatherings.	√ Hunt a wild animal.
 Fight to preserve a tribal language.	√ Destroy a historical monument.	√ Pollute a river.	√ Create violence over religious differences.

III. Answer in short.

1. What are the fundamental duties of an Indian citizen?
2. Name three things that could happen if we didn't have our fundamental rights.
3. Think of situations in your daily life during which you exercise the following fundamental rights:
 - a. Right to Equality
 - b. Right to Freedom
 - c. Cultural and educational right.
4. What can a citizen of India do if his/her fundamental right is taken away?

IV. Answer in detail.

1. Which do you think, are more important? Our fundamental rights or duties? Give reasons for your answer.