

Answer sheet 2

I. Mark prehistory and history on the given timeline.

II. Fill in the blanks.

- Evidence of written records marks the beginning of history.
- Past events that have no written record are said to be in prehistory.
- It is believed reading and writing first started in 3200 BCE.
- The invention of writing divides prehistory and history.
- The wheel was invented in prehistory because there is no written record of it.

III. Circle the inventions that happened in prehistory.

 Steam ship (1787 CE)	 Motor car (1861 CE)	 ✓ Wheel (3500 BCE)
 Hot air balloon (1783 CE)	 Steam locomotive (1801 CE)	 Horse carriage (2000 BCE)

IV. Answer in short.

1. Can you think of three inventions in prehistory that changed our lives?