

Answer sheet 3

I. Fill in the blanks.

1. In 1974 a 3.2 million - year - old human skeleton was found in Ethiopia.
2. The ancient skeleton helps us know more about early humans.
3. A human skeleton is a source of history.
4. An original source of information is called a primary source.
5. Sources of History that are not direct accounts are secondary sources.

II. Choose the correct answer.

1. A monument is a:
 - a. Primary source
 - b. Secondary source

2. A Manuscript is a:
 - a. Primary source
 - b. Secondary source

3. The photograph of an artefact is a:
 - a. Primary source
 - b. Secondary source

4. An article in a historical journal is a:
 - a. Primary source
 - b. Secondary source

5. A photograph of your grandparents' wedding is a:
 - a. Primary source
 - b. Secondary source

I. Answer in short.

1. Compare the uses of primary and secondary sources of History.
2. Why were experts excited about Donald Johanson's discovery?
3. Why do you think an ancient coin that your grandfather might have given you is a primary source?
4. Why do you think a historical article in a newspaper is a secondary source?

II. Answer in detail.

1. Write a brief note about your family history.

Grade: 5

Subject: Social Science

Lesson name: Tracing Our History

