

Answer sheet 1I. Write true or false for the following.

1. The poem describes the year as a year of learning. - true
2. With each passing day, friendship grows. - true
3. The box of crayon in the poem is described as dull and broken.- false
4. The poet lent a broken crayon to a friend. - false

II. Match the words in Column A with that of Column B, based on their meanings.

Words	Meanings
1. lent	a. gave someone something to use
2. together	b. with each other
3. share	c. to give a part to someone
4. shiny	d. bright

III. Rearrange the given sentences. One has been done for you.

a box	I	had	crayons	of	shiny
-------	---	-----	---------	----	-------

I had a box of shiny crayons.

1.

share	be	we	will	kind	and
-------	----	----	------	------	-----

We will share and be kind.

2.

lent	a friend	I	crayon	one
------	----------	---	--------	-----

I lent a friend one crayon.

3

we	colour	both	can	now
----	--------	------	-----	-----

Now we both can colour.

4.

friendship	grow	our	will
------------	------	-----	------

Our friendship will grow.

IV. Answer in short.

1. What happened to the crayon which the poet shared with a friend?
2. What did the poet say when the friend said sorry?
3. What will grow with each passing day according to the poem?
4. Name two qualities of a good friend.