

Answers to Worksheet 2

I. Write True or False.

1. People who live next to each other are called extended family. False
2. During festivals, we share sweets and food with our neighbours. True
3. It is not good to welcome new neighbours as they are strangers to you. False
4. When you celebrate festivals with your neighbours, you care, share, and have fun with them. True

II. Fill in the blanks.

A particular area where many families live is called a neighbourhood.
When people live in the same building complex or street, they are called neighbours.

1. You can play board games like chess or snake and ladder with your friends and neighbours indoors or outdoors
2. Diwali is the festival of lights, usually celebrated with firecrackers, lots of lights and sweets.

III. Find the following words in the word grid.

Christmas Diwali Ramzan Holi Pongal

C	L	I	O	I	A	L
H	N	Q	L	P	B	A
R	I	A	D	O	B	G
I	M	V	Z	L	H	N
S	F	M	Q	M	G	O
T	Z	N	D	M	A	P
M	A	R	P	N	R	R
A	I	L	A	W	I	D
S	Y	Z	V	C	V	H

IV. Answer in short.

1. Write two ways in which you celebrate your favourite festival with your neighbours.
2. A family is shifting to your neighbourhood-mention two ways in which you can make them feel welcomed.
3. Write two ways you can spend time with your friends in the neighbourhood other than playing together.