

Answer sheet 1-Literature

I. Write True or False.

1. Hachiko was adopted by Professor Ueno and his wife.   T
2. Hachiko did not like his master.   F
3. Hachiko would go daily to Shibuya station with his master.   T
4. Professor Ueno died in an accident.   F
5. After his master's death, Hachiko stopped waiting for him.   F
6. Hachiko became a national figure known for his faithfulness and loyalty.   T

II. Match the following.

Column A
1.Hachiko
2.Professor Ueno
3.Shibuya station
4.student
5.endless wait of Hachiko
6.Professor and hachiko
7. Bronze statue of Hachiko
8. Hachiko died

Column B
a. Adopted Hachiko
b. loyal and faithful
c.a special bond of friendship
d.Akita puppy
e.way to university
f.made Hachiko famous
g.March 8 th ,1935
h.Shibuya station

1-d 2-a 3-e 4-f 5-b 6-c 7-h 8-g

III. Answer the following questions:

1. Which university was Professor Ueno teaching in?
Professor Ueno was teaching at the Imperial university in Tokyo.
2. What breed was Hachiko?
Hachiko was an Akita.

3. What would Hachiko do after the professor boarded the train from Shibuya station?
After the professor boarded the train from Shibuya station, Hachiko would wait there eagerly for his return in the evening.
4. Why did the professor not return one day?
The professor did not return one day because he had suddenly died while delivering a lecture.
5. What sight did people see everyday?
People saw Hachiko patiently waiting for his master to return everyday and endlessly at Shibuya station.
6. How did the professor' student come to know about Hachiko' life?
The professor' student came to know about Hachiko' life when he followed the dog as it returned to the professor' old house.
7. How did Hachiko become famous?
Hachiko became famous through the articles that the student wrote in the newspapers narrating its heartwarming story.
8. Name two outstanding qualities of Hachiko that make it special.
Unconditional love
Loyalty